

Second Annual War of 1812 Seminar

When: Friday, April 30, 2010 and Saturday, May 1, 2010.

Where: The event will be held at the National Register of Historic Places eligible Freighthouse Restaurant in Ogdensburg, which is located on the site of the 1812 battlefield, and immediately adjacent to the Fort La Présentation archaeological site.

Freight House Restaurant.
20 Market Street, Ogdensburg, NY 13669
315-393-9088

Cost: $80.00 per person (Members of the Fort La Presentation Association), $100.00 per person (all others)

An additional charge of $8.00 per person (members) and $10 per person (non-members) applies for the Friday evening session.

Participants' registration fee will provide for the cost of three (3) meals- a Continental Breakfast, Buffet Lunch and sit-down Supper.

There will be a Friday Social Hour at 6:00 PM, with finger foods and a cash bar, an informal opportunity to meet Fort La Presentation Association board members and speakers. In addition, there will be book signings by Douglas R. Cubbison, Jim Regan, and Don Graves. It will be at the Freighthouse Restaraunt, in the Meeting Room at the side. Parking will be at the Freighthouse Restaraunt.

Saturday's event will be at the front entrance of the Freighthouse Restaraunt. Parking will be across the street at the Fort La Presentation property. Handicapped parking is available at the Freighthouse Restaraunt.

Saturday schedule:

- 8:00 am Doors open
- 9:00 am Keynote Speaker - "Canada in the War of 1812" - Don Graves
- 10:30 am Dr. Nicholas Westbrook - "Paying for Conflicted Loyalties": A Family History of the War of 1812 on the Border
- 11:30 – 1:00 Buffet lunch
- 1:00 pm Robert Henderson - "Hustlers, Bumpkins and Wanna-be-Heroes: Recruiting the British Soldier for the War of 1812"
- 2:00 pm Mrs. Dianne Graves - Women in the War of 1812
- 3:00 pm Major John R. Grodzinski - Sir George Prevost
- 4:15 pm Forsyth Rifles - 1812 Living History Camp on Fort Property, followed by a walking tour of the proposed Fort project by Fort La Presentation Association
- 4:15 pm Alternative walking tour of the Remington Museum for those who do not wish to or are not capable of walking the Fort property
- 6:00 pm Closing Comments
- 6:10 pm Dinner
- 7:10 pm Musical Entertainment: Songs and Tales of the Fur Trade with Lisette Laval Harmon of the NorthWest Company, by Ms. Lynn Noel

Exhibitors:

Lord Durham Rare Books Inc.
Company of Military Historians
National Museum of the US Navy (tentative)
Army Heritage and Education Center (tentative)
The Discriminating General

Questions regarding this event should be directed to:
Douglas R. Cubbison, Board Member, Fort La Presentation Association
Whitestar1864@hotmail.com

Seminar Registration

Second Annual War of 1812 Seminar

Name: _____

Mailing
Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

May we share your email address with other historic organizations?

Yes: No:

Number of members attending: _____

Will you attend the Friday session? Yes: No:

Number of non-members attending: _____

Will you attend the Friday session? Yes: No:

Dinner selection: Prime rib _____ Chicken Marsala _____

Canadian residents, please pay in US funds, or international money order payable in US dollars.

Send payment by check or money order to:

Fort La Présentation Association

Attn: War of 1812 Seminar

PO Box 1749

Ogdensburg, New York 13669